

Copyright

All images must be original works of the photographer. The photographer will shoot the images / content / work within the stipulated period of four months of the Grant commencing from March 2018 onwards.

The copyright for the images will remain with the photographer, with permission for Sahapedia to use the selected images / content / work on its website, outreach and social media platforms. The photographers can offer the images / content / work to other publications for commercial or non-commercial use, only after a period of 6 months from the date of publishing on Sahapedia.org.

Sahapedia will have the unfettered right to use and/or reproduce the whole or parts of the images / content / work arising out of the Grant in any of its publications without additional permission or payment.

Sahapedia shall provide due credit to you as photographer when using your image / content / on its website.

You warrant that there are no other restrictions, interests or limitations applicable to the accepted images / content / work which could interfere with the rights you grant to Sahapedia under these terms.

All images / content / work created and curated for the module, accepted under the Grant will be uploaded to Sahapedia's online portal. Sahapedia is committed to the Creative Commons approach, to maximize the potential of the Internet to widen access to research, knowledge and artistic creativity, with full credit to creators. The content you share will be published under CC-BY-SA 4.0 license by Sahapedia primarily through its website www.sahapedia.org.

Sahapedia will have the right to edit and / or curate the images / content/ work you share to make it suitable for its audience and for its delivery formats.

Sahapedia will have the exclusive rights to make and defend any legal claims relating to the images / content/ work such as infringement of copyright and other intellectual property issues.

Sahapedia shall have no obligation under Sections 51, 63 and 65 of the Indian Copyright Act, 1957 to the extent of any claim of infringement or misappropriation resulting from: i)The use of the images / content / work in combination with any other work or materials not provided by the Grantee, except where such combination is reasonably necessary for the Intended Use of this work.

(ii) Any third party claim arising in regards to the images / content / work.