

Sahapedia-UNESCO Fellowship 2020

Annexure I

About the Fellowship

Sahapedia is pleased to announce the fourth edition of the Sahapedia–UNESCO Fellowship programme to provide enthusiasts, students and scholars an opportunity to engage with and explore India’s rich cultural heritage.

The Sahapedia–UNESCO Fellowship is a part of our efforts to raise awareness – at local, national and international levels – of the importance of tangible and intangible heritage, and to increase access to communities, groups and individuals who constitute or safeguard this heritage. The Sahapedia–UNESCO Fellowship 2020 is supported by the HT Parikh Foundation.

Through this initiative, fellows will be encouraged to conduct documentation and research in diverse areas of cultural knowledge and practices. Research and documentation carried out by the Fellows will be published on the Sahapedia web portal.

Languages

Fellowships are available in the following languages this year – English, Hindi, Bengali, Tamil and Malayalam.

Eligibility

Completed post-graduation or equivalent experience (professional and/or research).

Application Procedure

You would be required to submit the following as part of your application.

1. Resume
2. Proposal of approximately 1000 words, which in addition to an abstract of 250 words, must include the following:
  - a. Scope of work
  - b. Selection of deliverables
  - c. Methodology and timeframe

The proposal should be relevant to Sahapedia’s field of work.

3. Writing sample, a previously written essay or research paper of at least 1500 words, or a URL link of a 5-10 minutes long video clip indicating the candidates’ skills in filmmaking/videography (for documentation); or both, depending on the selection of deliverables.

4. Bibliography list of existing literature or work on the topic. No more than 15 items/titles are expected.

Duration

The fellowship has to be completed between 01 October 2020 and 30 March 2021. Failure to complete the fellowship within the stipulated timeframe will result in the cancellation of that fellowship. Candidates are advised to refer to the timeline outlined in Annexure III.

Categories

Fellowship types are divided into research, documentation, or a combination of the two categories.

Depending on their selection of category, candidates may select their deliverables. Candidates may refer to the guidelines for content creation in Annexure IV.

Deliverables

Each Fellowship consists of three elective deliverables. The candidate may identify, during the time of application, three deliverables, the options for which are given below:

Deliverable I: (Pick one)

1. Illustrated overview/ introductory article (3000 words with 5–10 images), or 2. Short documentary film (15–20 minutes with English subtitles, along with a synopsis of approximately 500 words)

Deliverable II & III: (Pick any two)

1. Allied article (1500 words with 3–5 images),
2. Image gallery (30–50 images with captions), or Photo essay (20 images with captions and a short essay of about 500-800 words to complement the visual narrative),
3. Text interview with an expert/scholar/practitioner (1500 words, with minimum 10 Q&As).

In addition, selected candidates working in regional languages will be required to provide content translated in English, upon approval of the Sahapedia team.

1. Articles with translations
2. Transcripts and subtitles in English for documentaries
3. Translation for text-based interviews

Funding

Selected candidates will be granted an award of ₹44,445. Applicable Income Tax will be deducted at source as per the provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961. Thus, the award will amount to ₹40,000, which will be released in three installments, based on the completion of specific deliverables. The procedure for disbursements will be shared upon signing the agreement.

Fellows working in regional languages will receive an additional payment of up to ₹10,000 for translation (after submission of the invoice for translation work).
